

Returning Men to Honor: Batterers Intervention Programming in a Coordinated Community Response

Mending the Sacred Hoop TA Project, Oneida Tribe Coordinated Community
Response Team, and the U. S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women

April 16-17, 2019
Oneida, WI

---

- 9:00 a.m.      Opening Ceremonies
Welcoming remarks – Gene Red Hail
Overview of W.O.W. – Jeremy NeVilles-Sorell
- 9:30            Systems Accountability
Front line services, law enforcement, prosecution, courts, and probation all hold a responsibility to protect the community. In intimate partner situations these systems often fail due to human bias and lack of monitoring policy compliance and this session will present on why a strong system’s response is crucial to victim safety and offender accountability.
Marlin Mousseau
- 10:30           Break
- 10:45           History of Batterer’s Intervention
Batterer’s intervention programming evolved out of an enhanced systems’ response to intimate partner violence. This session will present on how BIPs evolved and their critical link to courts and advocacy programs.
Don Chapin
- 12:00           Lunch (on your own)
- 1:30            Essential Infrastructure
This session we will present on the policies and procedures needed to have an effective batterer’s intervention program. We will discuss court monitoring as well as reporting on offender compliance.
Marlin Mousseau and Don Chapin
- 3:00            Break
- 3:15            Trends in Batterer’s Intervention Programming
Trends shift overtime and programs change in approach. This session we will discuss some of the good and bad elements of these changes and potential challenges for when implementing or monitoring a batterer’s intervention program.
Gene Red Hail, Marlin Mousseau, and Don Chapin
- Men’s Panel: men who have been through the program will speak about their change process and what helped them in their journey
- 4:00            Adjourn

Returning Men to Honor: Batterers Intervention Programming in a Coordinated Community Response

Mending the Sacred Hoop TA Project, Oneida Tribe Coordinated Community
Response Team, and the U. S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women

April 16-17, 2019
Oneida, WI

---

- 9:00 a.m. Oneida Coordinated Community Response
This presentation will focus on the Oneida CCR history, the goals and objectives of the project, agencies involved, and the gains to hold offenders accountable.
Gene Red Hail and Don Chapin
- 10:00 Tour of Agencies

Oneida Family Services: Family Service Director, Jennifer Berg Hargrove Oneida Behavioral Health, Mari Kriescher Area Manager, Tsyoshaht Delgado

Gene Red Hail
- 11:30 Lunch (on your own)
- 1:00 Tour of Agencies

Oneida Police Department: Oneida Police Chief, Rich Van Boxtel

Brown Co. District Attorney, David Lasee

Dept. of Corrections, Emily Hartfield

Indian Child Welfare, Lea Padron

Domestic Violence Intervention Program, Jessica Desens

Gene Red Hail
- 4:30 Debrief WOW with participants

Gene Red Hail and Don Chapin
- 5:00 Return to hotel